

A VERY WARM WELCOME TO OUR NEWSLETTER

Welcome to the May edition of our monthly newsletter, which we hope you enjoy reading. We are delighted to announce our Graduation Ceremonies will take place on Thursday 1st July in our school garden. This will be a lovely way to celebrate every child's transition from KBM to Primary School and all families will be allocated a time, which will be sent in due course.

THE TEAM

This month we are introducing you to Colette who is part of our team in our morning session in Class 2. Colette is behind all our photos and videos on Facebook and Instagram so we think the saying "Roll it there Colette" was made for her! Currently, Colette is undertaking her BA (Ord) Degree in Early Childhood Studies, which she will complete at the end of this month. This is a huge undertaking so congratulations Colette, we are all so proud of you. Colette is mum to two amazing daughters Isabel & Leah, who are her world and her husband Aidan comes in a very close second! As a child, Colette performed in the Skerries Majorettes and rumour has it she can still do a few tricks with the baton! Talking about rumours, we also heard how once Colette filled up a petrol car with diesel and caused a little scene at Edinburgh Airport as she was adamant her hand luggage was not over the limit – don't worry Colette we believe you!!!

PLAY MEANS:

exploring, talking, thinking, trying, imagining, daydreaming, inventing, giving, risk taking, sharing, turn taking, challenging, relaxing, shouting, singing, whispering, making, creating, being yourself, role playing, acting, building, laughing, problem solving....
